Until further notice all furloughs were canceled for the 300 employees of the clothing factory in Burg because a special order by the SCC demanded the immediate manufacture of 40,000 uniform shirts for the VI. The Saenger Firm in Burg, with a work force of 200 workers, was also geared to making VI shirts. All civilian orders were canceled. *

* Comment. The information is considered credible in view of press reports stating that the Bereitschaftspolizei was to be issued khaki-colored shirts in an effort to overcome the motley of police uniforms.
